Position Summary:
The Outreach and Events Coordinator will provide a vital capacity-building role on the Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee team. The two main priorities for this position include event-planning for mentors (“Bigs”) and mentees (“Littles”) as well as communication and marketing.

This position will play a key role in coordinating BBBS-ETN’s key strategic partnership with The Vol Network. As such, the Outreach and Events Coordinator will recruit mentors and mentees to volunteer on Saturdays in the fall. This role will coordinate marketing of the program and collaborate with media partners. The Outreach and Events Coordinator will work 6-7 Saturdays in the fall to support these events.

The Outreach and Events Coordinator will assist with the planning and implementation of “match” events for the youth we serve. Match events are both heartwarming and inspiring and are typically a delight to manage.

Additional duties include the following: Collaborating on stewardship and communication to BBBS-ETN donors; assisting with recruitment of Bigs especially in relation to targeted recruitment campaigns; pulling reports and collaborating with leadership to determine necessary adjustments to events, initiatives, and outreach activities; and, representing the agency at recruitment events and fairs.
The Big Brothers Big Sisters of East Tennessee team is dedicated to professional development. VISTA members would be eligible for our $150 training budget for each staff member. Further, as a member of Knoxville’s Alliance for Better Nonprofits, we also receive free training which this person could participate in.
